

British Sociological Association Sociology of Religion Study Group

2008 Postgraduate Essay Competition

The BSA Sociology of Religion Study Group invites postgraduates to enter the 2008 Postgraduate Essay Competition. Essays on any aspect of contemporary religion written from a sociological perspective are welcome.

A prize of £100 will be awarded to the winning entry at the Annual Conference in April 2008. There will also be an opportunity to publish the winning entry in the Journal for Contemporary Religion, subject to the journal's normal peer review process.

Submission Details:

- The essay should be between 5000 and 8000 words, including footnotes but excluding bibliography. (The essay must not be in print already, or submitted for publication elsewhere.)
- Electronic submission to Kristin Aune (K.Aune@derby.ac.uk), with cover sheet downloaded from the Study Group website: www.socrel.org.uk.
- The essay should be written in English and submitted as a single MS Word document attachment, including bibliography and cover sheet. Failure to incorporate the cover sheet will render disqualification.

The deadline for the 2008 competition is the 28th February, 2008. For further information please visit www.socrel.org.uk or contact Dr Kristin Aune (K.Aune@derby.ac.uk) or Dr Sylvie Collins-Mayo (S.Collins-Mayo@Kingston.ac.uk).
